Casa Latina is an equal opportunity employer. We consider all applicants without regard to race, color, national origin, religion, gender, marital or military status, age, sexual orientation, gender identity, the presence of any sensory, mental or physical disability, genetic information, political ideology or any other protected characteristic.

PURPOSE

The Lead Organizer advances Casa Latina's mission by organizing and mobilizing immigrant, refugee, and low-wage workers to advocate for workers' rights, improve workplace conditions, and strengthen community leadership. This position supports local, statewide, and national organizing campaigns and collaborates with community partners, coalitions, and policymakers to advance worker justice and economic equity.

The Lead Organizer leads Organizing & Leadership Services activities, worker outreach, member engagement, and leadership development efforts. The position conducts worker rights education, facilitate trainings and workshops, supports worker intakes and referrals, and maintains program records, reports, and documentation to ensure compliance with organizational and grant requirements.

NOTE: The requirements for this position are indicative of the physical and mental capacities needed to satisfactorily perform the duties for this position. Reasonable accommodations, as required by the Americans with Disabilities Act, will be granted whenever possible. The above job description is not comprehensive. The job responsibilities may include other duties as assigned. Casa Latina may change or update job duties as necessary to meet business needs.
